

HCO -L.A.

HUBBARD COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

HCO BULLETIN OF MAY 4, 1959
(Reissued from London)

HOW TO WRITE A CURRICULM

1. Establish personality of person present, (Create their beingness on course,) Course creates a beingness, not imparts data.
2. Demonstrates how to create this beingness,
3. Establish communication by teaching the language of the subject.
4. Exemplify the communication symbols with demonstrations of ridiculous errors.
When established teach:
  1. Each word and its definition that is used in practice, Underline strange words.
  2. Diagnosis. You must reconize ("Conditions we are seeking to change") i.e. Obnosis.
  3. System of classification.
  4. Means of changing each class or type of child, and maintenance of state. Subject matter: "Prevention of worsening."

Practice

Demonstration
Doingness

Note. Person who is willing to be the person who sees,
Person who sees,
Person who discusses,
Person who can do something.

L. RON HUBBARD

LRH:MP: BRS