REMEDY B - ENVIRONMENT
AND "NEW STYLE"

The Remedy B Environment and "New Style" are both used for the purpose of handling difficulties which the preclear is currently having. These remedies when done properly have rapid and effective results. They are also used to handle glee, which is an extreme case of misunderstandings.

The commands for REMEDY B ENVIRONMENT are:

1b Listing Question

1b "In your environment who or what are you having trouble with?"

2b Listing Question

2b "In your past who or what was similar to _____ (1b item)?"

3b Listing Question

3b "Who or what was misunderstood in _____ (2b item)?"

Remedy B "NEW STYLE" is done in the following way:

1. Select a few related subjects that the PC may have had difficulty with. (Can include psychoanalysis, hypnosis, mathematics, Navigation, etc.)
2. Assess what was sketched out in number 1 and take the one that reads and do the standard actions of Remedy B above.

1b "NEW STYLE" Question

1b "In _____ who or what are you having trouble with?"

2b and 3b commands are the same as in Remedy B.
