HCO POLICY LETTER OF MAY 16, 1962

HPA/HCA TRAINING

HPA/HCA students, or auditors doing HPA/HCA retread, are expected to graduate after a period of 16 weeks or 48 weekends (proportionately for night HPA/HCA courses)

The Director of Training will frequently re-direct the student's attention to the course requirements, and instruct him if necessary:

- (a) To have auditing at the HGC.
- (b) To brush up and/or study data or background in Scientology, attend P.E. course, Anatomy of Human Mind course and the Co-audit, and read books or listen to tapes before resuming course.
- (c) To handle his problems if any need handling, before returning to the course.

If the student cannot complete the course by graduating after the 16 weeks or 48 weekends, he will be allowed to complete it at the cost of £ 10. 10. 0 for each additional week, or three weekends (proportionately for night HPA/HCA, proportionate cost in other currencies).
