SUPERVISOR KNOW-HOW

Tips in Handling Students

From time to time it will be found that when students enroll on a course, the question of misunderstandings arises. This is best handled by getting the student to hunt up and define with the source of the definition (HCOB Date book name and page no). This allows the student to grasp the meaning of the words used in the study of Scientology. Words other than Scientology or Dianetic words are also clarified.

A real stopper can be the words Scientology or Dianetics. Consult the students understanding and not just accept what sounds like a definition of these two words.

Simple points like "why is level 0 level 0?" can produce astonishing resurgences in study velocity.

Using the questions "where were you doing well" and "where did you notice you ceased doing well" zeroes in on the point or word or principle misunderstood and sometimes just the first question blows the lot.

On many occasions its the first word on the material or the title of the HCOB so even check these.

Sometimes tracing back where or when the student heard of Dianetics or Scientology blows the trouble.

These points must be handled skillfully and rarely more than once on any occasion. Take it lightly and let the student win.
