GUARDIAN PUBLIC RELATIONSHIPS

The Guardian's Office handles certain publics which are its sole responsibility. These publics are as follows:

Press relations
Government relations
Special Guardian group relations
Opposition group relations
Troublesome relations

In press relations are included relations with the press, radio, television and magazines. Although the Public Divisions may place news releases, appear on radio or television or write stories for magazines, all such is done in co-ordination with and approved by the Public Relations Bureau of the Guardian's Office. Any reporter calling the organization is routed to the Guardian Public Relations Bureau.

All relationships with governmental agencies and government officials are handled by the Guardian's Office or are cleared through the Guardian's Office. The Legal Bureau receives and then handles or approves all correspondence to and from government officials acting in an official capacity; and whether such are local, county, district (state) or national, all are handled by the Legal Bureau.

The Public Relations Bureau handles visiting government officials, all lobbying actions and carries out all public relations programmes involved with the government.

There are specialized groups which are either established by the Guardian's Office or with which the Guardian's Office is co-acting toward mutual goals. These fall under the purview of the Public Relations Bureau.

Opposition group relations are in the sphere of Guardian's Office. These opposition groups are those which are acting against Scientology or against the goals of Scientology.

Troublesome relations is a catchall to include all those relations which the organization has not handled with its various publics and which then wind up on Guardian lines. Into this category fall business firms which sue the organization, threatening former Scientologists expelled by the Church, non-authorized squirrel groups, hostile members of the immediate community and so on.
