USE OF I&R FORM I

ADDS TO: HCO PL 6 October 1970
"INSPECTION OF LOW STATS"

It has been found that use of the I&R Form I on one individual in an area gives an incomplete picture.

It gives insufficient data to locate the real WHY, or leads to an incorrect WHY.

It therefore must be done on all those in the area of the person being inspected.

In a recent instance, one man in a division was about to be hit.

An I&R Form I was ordered before any hitting took place.

The Form indicated the WHY was not in his immediate area.

Further investigation revealed the WHY - a crazy org board for the division, no products listed or described!

The rule is: ALWAYS DO I&R FORM I ON EVERYBODY IN THE AREA TO GET THE REAL WHY.
