ETHICS: ADVANCED COURSES

(HCO P/L 29 April 66 Revised)

Whenever an Advanced Course Student is found guilty by Ethics of serious non compliance of Advanced Course instructions, blowing from Course, Misuse of Advanced Course Material, communicating about the Course to anyone (which includes Course Students) other than the Course Supervisor or an auditor properly assigned to the case or any action resulting in action having to be ordered immediately by the HCO Area Sec, to find who was responsible for allowing such a security risk on to the Courses and make recommendations.

The Advanced Course Supervisor may demand of the HCO Area Sec that a Committee of Evidence be called if he/she is of the opinion that the security of the Advanced Courses is threatened and no action is being taken.
