RELIGION

DIANETIC COUNSELLING GROUPS
CORPORATE - NAME CHANGE

Dianetic Counselling Groups which rent/purchase premises must be incorporated as a religious corporation under the Non-Profit Corporations Act of the State in which they operate. They shall operate as religious non-profit corporations.

The only approved name is The Church of Scientology Dianetic Counselling Group of (location).

Such Groups are bound by all HCO Policy Letters and in particular the religious image and promotional guidelines. Their services are religious in nature. They do religious (pastoral) counselling. All of their communications to the public must inform the public individual that he is dealing with a religious practice. All such communications (letters, ads, mailing pieces, magazines, invoices, waivers, etc.) must clearly emanate from a DCG of the Church of Scientology and bear the correct name as above.

Violation of this policy will result in cancellation of status and the right to operate.
