It is hereby forbidden to put anything into a magazine that dates it. That doesn't only mean the date. This includes calendar dates, seasons, current prices, price changes, seasonal ads, vital statistics, etc.

All dated materials are subject to being inserts.

This applies to all org magazines, The Auditor, Advance!, Source, or any other magazine.

This means that magazine contents are timeless. "Old" issues are always valid as promotion items if they are not dated. Dating them serves no purpose of any kind whatsoever.

Vital Statistics such as births, deaths and marriages, graduations and so forth as required by Auditor policy are excepted from this policy and must be continued.

Issue magazines by number only.

Any hat write-ups, orders or issues contrary to this policy are cancelled.

This policy does not alter copyright policy.
