Saint Hill Manor, East Grinstead, Sussex

HCO POLICY LETTER OF 18 SEPTEMBER 1980
Remimeo (Originally LRH OODs Item of 24 March 1970)

Exec Series 21

A MATTER OF ORDERS

ARC Breaks occur when a person in charge requests something be looked into and he is given an opinion or an explanation.

It is not a true Comm Cycle.

"Go see what's smoking." "I think it's George burning toast."

"Put out a bow line." "We got one out." (When a second one is needed.)

Gives one a long string of non-Comm Cycles and is a sure fire ARC Break.

I think this is why those in charge get upset. Getting an opinion or explanation where an order is meant to be done.

Part of the fault is not wording the order in anticipation of such a reply.
