STUDY

When Study Tech isn't in in full use in any org or here, overt products are produced.

This is THE Why of any lack of expansion or troubles with orgs. It is THE Why behind admin flubs, behind tech flubs.

Orgs are actually in the hands of and at the mercy of Course Supervisors and Dept of Personnel Enhancement people.

Paralleling this, lack of knowledge of what their product is, and because they don't know how good it can be, keeps org staffs from taking the planet. So Study Tech does not get forced in.

This is the nitty-gritty WHY that explains all about the state of orgs and stats.
