HCO POLICY LETTER OF 28 APRIL 1982

THE RIGHTS OF THE FIELD AUDITOR

(This was previously issued as HCOPL 2 Oct 69, but was later incorrectly cancelled by blanket cancellation of all policies in OEC Volume 6 that did not have LRH signature on them. This policy was written by LRH and originally appeared as PAB No 112. It is hereby restored to full use and reissued as an HCO PL.

Note: Point 3 was later modified by HCOPL 21 June 62 Staff Members Auditing Private Pcs, and point 9 was later modified by HCOPL 7 March 65 II, Certificate Cancellation.)

The field auditor has a right:

1. To his own group.
2. To the loyalty of the people in his group.
3. To send any of his group to a central org for training, coaching or special processing and have them returned with their group loyalty and attachment undisturbed.
4. To express his needs and desires for co-operation to a central organization, other groups or auditors without fear of retribution or reprimand.
5. To place his name and address on the title pages of publications from the central organization and circulate these in his area.
6. To publications from a central organization at a discount in proportion to the number he distributes.
7. The respect for his training and experience.
8. To respect for his certificates.
9. To have and to hold his certificates without cancellation by anyone forever.
10. To communicate Scientology and to bring about a civilization for mankind.

By my hand this 21st day of April 1957
